Did You Know?

- The first person selected as Time Magazine Man of the Year was Charles Lindbergh in 1927.
- Bald eagles are not bald, their heads are actually covered with slicked-down feathers.

 News Round Up! **

- Our first dinner meeting in June is going to be held at Special Equestrians in Warrington. The address is 2800 Street Road, call John Bill or Andy Weiss for directions.
- Horsham Day is coming up very soon. We need all the help we can get dishing out ice cream and trying to interest the community in Lionism!
- The 2004 Scholarship recipients have been selected. This year we have chosen five students, each one will receive $1,000. They will be awarded on June 10th by John Bill at the Hatboro Horsham High School Awards Night ceremony.
- Our 2004 Golf Outing was rained out in April. We have made arrangements with both the Abington Lions Club and Commonwealth National Golf Course to reschedule our outing for Monday August 23rd. Cross your fingers for good weather, this is our most important fund-raiser of the year!

Monthly Brain Teaser!

Two mothers and two daughters go to a pet store and buy three cats. Each female gets her own cat. How can this be?

Last Month's Answer:
"ENVELOPE" starts with the letter E, ends with the letter E, and usually contains one letter.
