 News Round Up! **

- ◆ The golf tournament, though it suffered from several false starts, still appears to be a financial success. It looks like we should take in approximately $1,000. We had 38 golfers while Abington brought 24.
- ◆ John Bill talked to Bill Walker, from Horsham Township Parks and Recreation, about having our planned Carnival on Horsham Township property. Mr. Walker said that was possible, but that we should discuss it again when we have more details.
- ◆ White Cane Days were held early this year due to scheduling conflicts with Acme and Wal-Mart. We netted approximately $700. Every penny matters.
- ◆ Many ideas were raised at our last meeting about new fundraising events. These include:
 - ◆ Breakfast/Brunch with Santa Claus
 - ◆ Pig Roast at Horsham Day instead of Ice Cream
 - ◆ Beef & Beer Night at local church
- ◆ We are always in need of new members, now more than ever. If you have any ideas that might draw in new members, come to the meetings and bring them to the table!!
