PARDON ME, YOUR CHARACTER IS SHOWING

He was a business acquaintance,
and I was his guest.
I thought he was a nice guy, like all the rest.

It was a hot, humid day. He ordered a drink.
It was just for him. What would you think?

Still another time I was his guest.
He ordered a hot dog, and all the rest.

Would I have one? He didn't ask.
I saw two personalities behind that mask.

If he was considerate,
he would not taste a bit.
Unless he asked me to share some of it.

When he was my guest,
I would serve him first.
He would gorge himself, 'til he'd nearly burst.

A few thoughtless people are unaware,
They think of themselves,
and forget you are there.

Recent News

- ◆ My apologies to all for not being able to get the January newsletter done. As most of you know I was hospitalized and had surgery. Thanks to all for your prayers and well wishes, I am well on the road to recovery. Apologies also are due to Lion Grace Scullin, whose visit I was very much looking forward to, and was forced to miss. Thanks go to Lion Fred Stewart for arranging her visit. A photo of Grace and her Leader Dog is above. Grace came to speak to the Horsham Lions about her travels and her new Trekker electronic guidance system. Learn more about Trekker by visiting <http://www.HumanWare.ca> — Andy Weiss, President
- ◆ 516 pair of eyeglasses were dropped off to the local VOSH-PA chapter in December. Many of those eyeglasses went with VOSH on a trip to Guatemala a week later. Photos and updates from the trip to come.

Monthly Brain Teaser!

You're in a hot air balloon far off the coast of Florida. You simultaneously drop two wine bottles, one full, one empty. Which hits the ground first?

Last Month's Answer:
Abe is a Baseball Player!
