Recent News

- The cost to rent the high school auditorium for a night will be $2,500+, and this is the non-profit rate. The cost to rent the 300-seat community center would be less than $150. If we choose to do a musical program as a fundraiser, our costs will be less at the community center.
- Vince Braccia came to speak to the Lions about the Health Wealth Wellness Zone. There are benefits we can reap by partnering in some areas with this organization; however, questions of propriety must be discussed.
- Shirley Truver will work with Elena Logiovine in producing a basket to be brought to the District Convention.
- Joe Nemath will acquire solar-powered landscape lighting for our lion statue.
- Horsham Lions will run a "meet and greet" table at Simmons Elementary's Spring Fair this May. The goal is to increase visibility and membership.
- Horsham Day planning is well underway, including homemade ice cream, roast pork, and funnel cakes.
- $340 was given to John Campisi for his annual Easter Dinners which he donates to needy local families.
- John Bill will affix a sign with our website beneath the Horsham Lions sign already in place along route 463 near Larry Glemser's garage John will also acquire another such sign to be affixed at our pavilion in Carpenter Park.
- A hefty stack of scholarship applications have been supplied by the high school and given to us for consideration. Scholarship selection committee to form soon.
- $50 was spent toward the purchase of raffle tickets for the District Convention
- $150 was spent donating to "Reach Out and Care", an organization that distributes wheelchairs to needy children in developing countries.
- District 14R Convention schedule can be obtained by emailing Andy Weiss.
